Former foreign correspondent Charles Mortimer is all washed up, living a hand-to-mouth existence in Manhattan, wondering how things could have gone so wrong for him. A chance discovery of a newspaper obituary takes him back to the beginning of his career, when he was a young, hopeful man reporting from the Sahara Desert in the company of beautiful French photographer Celeste Dumas.
The two narrowly escape death by bullet, grenade, thirst and heatstroke and, ultimately, drowning. By the end of their adventure, Mortimer has begun his life as a successful, cynical journalist. Fifteen years roll by, and Mortimer finds himself again in Algeria, where he perpetrates the great error of his professional life and realizes, finally, what it was he lost so long ago in the desert wastes. Building from Henry Shukman's award-winning story 'Mortimer of the Maghreb', Sandstorm is a tale of love, adventure and moral failure. It explores the themes of truth, experience and morality in a world of globalized media. In the past, while visiting the First World War battlefields, the author often wondered where the various Victoria Cross actions took place. He resolved to find out. In 1988, in the midst of his army career, research for this book commenced and over the years numerous sources have been consulted. Victoria Crosses on the Western Front Third Ypres 1917 is designed for the battlefield visitor as much as the armchair reader. A thorough account of each VC action is set within the wider strategic and tactical context. Detailed sketch maps show the area today, together with the battle-lines and movements of the combatants. It will allow visitors to stand upon the spot, or very close to, where each VC was won. Photographs of the battle sites richly illustrate the accounts. There is also a comprehensive biography for each recipient, covering every aspect of their lives warts and all parents and siblings, education, civilian employment, military career, wife and children, death and burial/commemoration. A host of other information, much of it published for the first time, reveals some fascinating characters, with numerous links to many famous people and events. Biographical sketches of the 257 Virginia Military Institute (VMI) Cadets who fought in the Civil War Battle of New Market, VA May 15, 1864 with new forward by Col. Keith E. Gibson The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya. Samuel Beadle (d.1664) emigrated from England (by tradition from the Isle of Jersey) to Charlestown, Massachusetts during or before 1656, and later moved to Salem, Massachusetts. Descendants and relatives lived in New England, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Kansas, California and elsewhere. Contains "verbatim reports of Debates at the East-India house, taken in shorthand for these pages"--V. 1, p. iii. Sherlock Holmes e Dr. Watson são chamados para investigar a morte misteriosa de Sir Charles Baskerville. Deparam-se com um criminoso foragido, um casal apaixonado, uma fera sobrenatural que emite sons aterrorizantes e ainda um desconhecido que se esconde na charneca. Primeiro best-seller do século passado, os críticos consideram O Cão dos Baskerville o melhor romance policial de todos os tempos. Envolvente e surpreendente. O Cão dos Baskerville traz um enredo genial de mistério, suspense, terror e revelações incríveis, como em todos livros de Arthur Conan Doyle, genial criador do detetive mais famoso do mundo.
