What is it like? - This is often the first question we ask about any object, and it is typically answered with adjectives: old, smooth, pointed, narrow, etc. Characteristics of things around us is a fundamental aspect of how we conceptualize the physical world, regardless of when or where we live - and regardless of our language. Despite this, the vocabulary of physical qualities has received comparatively little attention in lexical typology: most research so far has focused on verbs and the actions they express. This volume presents a lexicotypical study of several domains of physical qualities: 'sharp'/'blunt', 'wet', 'empty'/'full', 'old', as well as dimensions temperature and surface texture. It discusses several theoretical issues including intragenetic language sampling, the possibility of signed vs. spoken language comparison at the lexicon level, and the potential of applying computational models of distributional semantics to lexical typology. The book will be of interest to linguists with a focus on typology, general and lexical semantics, to lexicographers, and to language students and teachers. So hatte sich Genevieve Daylee ihren siebenundzwanzigsten Geburtstag nicht vorgestellt. Allerdings kann sie seit dem Tod ihrer Mutter und deren Verbindung zu einem ehemaligen Motorradclub, kaum noch etwas schockieren. Nun steht sie vor einem Standesbeamten und neben ihr der Mann, der sie gerettet hat. Obwohl er ihr eher wie ein Raubritter vorkommt, als ein strahlender Prinz auf dem berühmten weißen Pferd. Isaiah Reynolds hat seine Gefängnisstrafe abgesessen und in Clifton Forge nicht nur einen Job, sondern auch ein Zuhause gefunden. Tief im Innersten glaubt er aber, dass er weder die Freiheit noch eine Frau wie Genevieve verdient hat. Dann ist es ja auch gut, dass ihre Ehe nur vorgetäuscht ist und nicht von Dauer. In einem internationalen Wettbewerb werden die Helden gesucht, die allein in der Lage sein werden, die Erde vor einer Katastrophe zu retten. Projekt Alpha stellt die Jugendlichen aus aller Welt vor Aufgaben, die ihre ganze Kraft, ihre Intelligenz, ihren Mut - und nicht zuletzt ihre Fähigkeit zur Zusammenarbeit und ihren Teamgeist herausfordern. Es ist ein gnadenloser Wettbewerb - und nur vier werden am Ende ausgewählt. Teachers often want to learn new ideas and approaches to improve their teaching, but their efforts are often blocked by structural constraints in their districts and schools. How can schools overcome these barriers to provide more supportive environments for change? The authors answer this question through the study of six cases of schools and districts where teachers and researchers collaborated to develop teaching for understanding in math and science. This new book features: a new conceptual model of how school resources relate to teaching and learning, focusing not only on material resources such as time and money but also on human and social resources; methods that administrators can use to support teachers who want to improve their teaching of math and science; elements that professional developers should look for in a school environment when they are considering working with staff on teaching improvements; and answers to important questions, including how schools operate as organizations, how they control work, how they respond to changes in their environment, and how they improve classroom teaching and learning. Racing against the clock, shy middle-school student Lily and her best friends, Katie and Jasper, must foil the plot of her father's conniving boss to conquer the world using an army of whales. A dash of sass in the kitchen is exactly what you need! My cookbook is not your typical cookbook. You will notice I do not measure everything out but instead I take an idea of a dish or two or three: ) and create my own version of the recipe. Putting your own creativity on a dish allows you to enjoy it to the fullest. We all have different tastes in herbs, spices, heat, etc so why shouldn't you cook to accommodate what it is you like. As you will notice I include a lot of pictures and I do it because I like pictures of recipes. For me pictures help me determine if I'm interested in the dish or not and it's my book so I can do what I want haha. Nothing is more satisfying when you take a dish that is good but then you put your own flavor to it and BAM you end up with a favorite that you will make time and time again. The kitchen for me, is my fun zone. We got the music is going, the counters full of ingredients and the creativity flowing. All to end up on the table to my family and friends drooling at the mouth. That is success!!! I hope my book encourages you to get creative in the kitchen and to realize not everything needs to be measured. Enjoy A wanderer. An outcast. A Queen. Against the customs of the land, Kigal is amongst the few still willing to bury the dead. It is a life that has left her wandering, without friend or home, but she spreads her message of justice for the deceased wherever she can. However, when targeted by those who loathe her, she narrowly escapes execution and tumbles into the Underworld. There Kigal is met with the impossible: the souls of the dead proclaiming her as their goddess, fated to be Queen of the Underworld. Hurling into a world beyond her imagining, clashing with seductive gods and bringing demons to heel, she must fight to bring justice to the forgotten dead. Yet as an ancient evil rises in the Land of the Living, Kigal must not only fight for the lives of those who sought her ruin, but for their very souls. All Love in Bloom books can be enjoyed as stand-alone novels or as part of the larger series. For this sweet bookstore owner, avoiding the charms of a famed-football-player-turned-author was supposed to be easy... Funny, sinfully sexy, opposite-attracts romance. Amber Montgomery is perfectly happy with her quiet life, running her bookstore, taking long walks with Reno, her Labrador retriever seizure-response dog, and spending time with her close-knit family. She's never needed thrills the way some of her sisters have. In an effort to control her epilepsy, she tries to avoid anything that creates too much excitement or stress—including relationships.

When Amber hosts a book signing for famed-athlete-turned-author Dash Pennington, he's everything she's spent her life avoiding: loud, aggressive, and far too handsome, as proven by the hordes of women who surround him everywhere he goes. Amber can't ignore the sparks flying between her and Dash, but this is a no-brainer for her: Ignore their chemistry and hold her breath until he leaves town. Dash Pennington has spent his life running. Running the ball in for a touchdown, running from town to town to appease his public relations reps, and for years, running into the arms of too many women to count. He's also an expert at protecting—his reputation, his family, and lately, his sanity. But he's ready to make a change. When he comes to the sleepy little town of Oak Falls, Virginia, and witnesses the most beautiful woman he's ever seen living the life he craves, she refuses to have anything to do with him. But now that Dash has found the one thing he doesn't want to run from, he'll stop at nothing to win her over. ** Within the Love in Bloom big-family romance collection, characters from each sub-series appear in future books.
